The Committee makes its best effort to obtain, maintain, and report the full identification of all individuals who contribute in excess of $200 in a calendar year. Solicitation materials include an accurate, clear, and conspicuous statement of the law's requirements for the collection and reporting of contributor information. If the contributor does not provide sufficient reporting information when making a contribution, the Committee makes a follow-up request within 30 days. The Committee maintains records of follow-up requests. If the contributor does not respond to the follow-up request, but the Committee possesses the information in its contributor records, fundraising records or prior reports filed during the same election cycle, then the Committee uses that information when disclosing the contribution. If requested information about a contribution is received after the contribution has been disclosed on a report, the Committee will either file a memo Schedule A with its next regularly scheduled report, listing all contributions for which new contributor information has been received, or file amendments to the original reports.
